New Orleans in winter is a playground for the senses. Escape the humdrum holiday and dive into a world of festive merriment with Mardi Gras madness, off-the-beaten-path adventures, ghost tours, and more. Here's Roami's Big Easy wintertime bucket list.

- Embrace the Enchantment: Witness the dazzling LUNA Fête festival of lights amidst NOLA's Celebration in the Oaks (from Thanksgiving through the New Year) in City Park. Revel in festive cheer at New Orleans Christmas Fest, and ring in the New Year with lively street parties and stunning fireworks. We recommend catching that last one from your heated Roami at The Brandywine rooftop pool.

- Unleash Your Festive Spirit: Immerse yourself in New Orleans's iconic festival any time or year with a Mardi Gras World Museum tour. Or, book your Roami for mid-February's Fat Tuesday to witness the festival's grand parades and costumed merriment! Festivities run early January through early March to sweep you away with infectious energy, NOLA-style.

- Wander Beyond the Usual: Explore the historic French Quarter and Garden District with a local guide, uncover hidden gems on a guided food tour, or delve into NOLA's fascinating history with a cemetery tour or a spooky ghost walk. Enjoy French Quarter's Bourbon Street revelry and duck out to your Roami at Factors Row before things get too crazy; it's a quick, four-block jaunt away. Imbibe in historic New Orleans with drinks (no longer illicit!) at speakeasies like Old Absinthe House in the French Quarter or Bywater's N7.

-Discover the NOLA's Rich History: New Orleans's fascinating history is always a can't-miss, and museum visits are a nice break from wintertime festivities. The National WWII Museum is a must-see for history buffs. At the same time, the Ogden Museum of Southern Art shows off the region's artistic past. New Orleans Museum of Art (NOMA) boasts an expansive collection exploring hundreds of years and several continents and features a can't-miss French and American art exhibit.

- Embrace Your Playful Side: Jump into more New Orleans fun. Get your groove on at a jazz club or a lively burlesque show, test your wits in a thrilling escape room, or soar above the water on a flyboarding adventure in Lake Pontchartrain! Remember to hit the action on Frenchmen Street with live music performances, dancing, and diverse culinary delights. Then whip up a meal for the crew back at your posh Roami at The Lola vacation rental.
